

General Rules and Regulation for students and staff.

ITPL is committed to promoting values like integrity, excellence, responsibility, diversity, and inclusivity. To ensure a safe and respectful environment for everyone, the following rules apply:

1. Complete all registration and pay your tuition and other fees by the given deadlines.
2. Attend classes regularly. Excessive absences may lead to penalties. Actively participate in class discussions and group activities.
3. Submit original work. Plagiarism, cheating, or any form of dishonesty is not allowed.
4. Treat everyone with respect, including staff, service workers, and fellow students. Avoid any form of discrimination, harassment, or behaviour that harms others' emotional wellbeing or reputation.
5. Always carry your ITPL ID card and present it when requested. Physical assault or any behavior that endangers others is strictly prohibited.
6. Visitors are not allowed on campus unless accompanied by a student/staff. Students/staff are responsible for their guests' behaviour.
7. Use ITPL facilities (libraries, labs, study areas) responsibly and leave them in good condition. Respect ITPL property and the property of others. Keep shared spaces clean and avoid littering.
8. Behave in a way that protects your own health and safety, as well as that of others. Gambling, drugs, and alcohol are not allowed on campus.
9. Dress appropriately on campus. Wear national dress during class hours (Bhutanese students).
10. Use personal devices (phones, laptops, etc.) responsibly. Do not use them during lectures unless permitted by the instructor.
11. Report any violations of the rules to faculty or administration without fear of retaliation.
12. Breaking the rules can lead to disciplinary actions, including warnings, probation, or expulsion. Students have the right to appeal decisions.
13. Students are responsible for their actions and decisions, both academically and socially, within the ITPL community.
